May 3rd Feast Day of St. Phillip and St. James

 While many of the twelve apostles have their own separate feast, Sts. Philip and James the Lesser share the same day on May 3. Why is that? Are they related? Sts. Philip and James the Lesser are not related by blood, and share the same feast day simply because their relics were transferred to Rome to the same church. While their remains are interred in the same church in Rome, the two apostles had gone their separate ways after the Ascension of Jesus, with St. James staying in Jerusalem and St. Philip preaching in Turkey. Aleteia

Reflecting on Archbishop Leo’s Pastoral Letter on Seeking the Kingdom of God Awareness of the Kingdom Throughout Our Archdiocese Truth

We endeavour passionately so that the radiance of the truth my enlighten lives and help us to grow into the saints we are called to be in the Kingdom. We are guided and indeed led by the light of faith and reason as we seek to honour and spread the truth around us. Finally, let us be docile to the Holy Spirit as the Spirit of truth and make ourselves available to encountering truth and becoming its proponent around us regardless of its origin; to quote the Angelic Doctor: “whatever its source, truth is of the Holy Spirit.” –

Archbishop Francis Leo,

SEEKING THE KINGDOM OF GOD ABOVE AND BEYOND ALL THINGS,

Prayer for Catholic Education Week

God who is love,

Love is our calling, and the goal for which you have made us.

As we celebrate Catholic Education Week, may our love in action reveal to our world that we are people of justice and mercy.

May our daily words and example show clearly that we are people of faith and hope.

In the ways we reflect you daily,

may everyone recognize us as people of joy.

Help us to never forget how much you love us, and to cherish your life within us, which gives energy and direction to our loving.

May we hear your call to love generously and inclusively, and may we call our world to be more loving also.

All of this we ask in the name of Jesus, our Friend and our Lord. Amen.
