The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) Sunday, June 22, 2025

Also known as the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, this feast honours Jesus Christ, Really, Truly, and Substantially Present under the appearances of bread and wine. This Presence happens through the change which the Church calls transubstantiation (“change of substance”) when at the Consecration of the Mass, the priest says the words which Christ Himself pronounced over bread and wine, “This is My Body”, “This is the chalice of My Blood”, “Do this in remembrance of Me”. In 2025, the Solemnity of Corpus Christi is on June 19, but it is transferred to Sunday, June 22 in some dioceses. EWTN

The Nativity of Saint John the Baptist-Solemnity

(Special Patron of French Canadians)

June 24, 2025

The Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist is a special feast day in the Church. It celebrates the birth of St. John, who was chosen by God to prepare the way for Jesus. His birth was announced by an angel to his father, Zechariah, as part of God’s plan. The Church honours this day because St. John had a unique role in God’s story of salvation.

St. John the Baptist is one of the most important saints in the Bible. He is the only saint besides Mary and Jesus whose birth the Church celebrates. This shows how special his mission was. St. John’s life was focused on pointing people to Jesus. He preached repentance and baptized people as a sign of their readiness for the Messiah. Young Catholics

The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus-Solemnity

June 27, 2025

Catholics worldwide are urged to pray for priests today on the World Day of Prayer for the Sanctification of Priests. The day was begun by Saint John Paul II in 2002 with the objective of having all Catholic faithful join in prayer for the sanctification of priests. The World Day of Prayer for the Sanctification of Priests coincides with the Feast of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. ORDO

“That Blessed Upper Room”

Pastoral Letter from Frank Cardinal Leo

Frank Cardinal Leo, Metropolitan Archbishop of Toronto, has released “That Blessed Upper Room”, a pastoral letter inviting the faithful of the archdiocese to reflect together on the significance of The Upper Room in our lives, our families and in our communities of faith as this story is so directly connected to pivotal events in the life of Jesus and of the early Church. The letter is divided into nine chapters, drawing on dimensions of our Catholic Christian life. In the words of Cardinal Leo: “This resource can be the object of a parish sharing group or an informal gathering of friends. The reflections can be used as inspiration for summer reading or for Advent or Lenten activities or for a personal retreat. You can, for instance, take one question per day and let it accompany you or set some quiet time per week, a short 15 minutes, to read a paragraph and ask yourself a question that is proposed. Studied and reflected upon individually or in community, whether in families, parishes, schools and religious houses, I pray that this small contribution will help readers and faithful come to a more profound sense of faith, a more mature relationship with the Lord and to a transforming experience of grace.” A short video introduction and the full pastoral letter can be accessed by visiting:
