HAPPY MOTHER’S DAY!!!

Motherhood is a sacred calling, a reflection of God’s love poured into the world through tender care, patience, and selfless devotion.

As we celebrate mothers in our lives, we are invited to pause and lift our hearts in prayer, entrusting them to God’s loving guidance and abundant grace.

Prayer of gratitude for our mothers:

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the gift of mothers, whose love reflects Your own divine care. Bless them for their sacrifices, patience, and unwavering devotion. Fill their hearts with joy and peace as they nurture and guide their families. Strengthen them in times of weariness and renew their spirits with Your grace. May they feel appreciated and cherished not only today, but always. Surround them with Your protection and love. Thank You for the wisdom and kindness they share each day. Help us honour and support them with grateful hearts. We entrust all mothers into Your loving hands. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

Display of the Sacred Heart Icon in Sutton until May 11, 2026 by the Knights of Columbus

Spread devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and pray for Our Lord to make His heart our own, so that we may see and love in others what He sees and loves in us. This display features an icon depicting the most famous image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, painted in 1767 by Pompeo Batoni and now venerated in the Church of the Gesù in Rome. The painting of the Sacred Heart of Jesus was inspired by the apparition of Jesus, under the title of the Sacred Heart, to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque.

Feast of St. Matthias, May 14, 2026

How does one qualify to be an apostle?

The first act of the apostles after the Ascension of Jesus was to find a replacement for Judas. With all the questions, doubts, and dangers facing them, they chose to focus their attention on finding a twelfth apostle. Why was this important? Twelve was a very important number to the Chosen People: twelve was the number of the twelve tribes of Israel. If the new Israel was to come from the disciples of Jesus, a twelfth apostle was needed.

But Jesus had chosen the original twelve. How could they know whom He would choose?

One hundred and twenty people were gathered for prayer and reflection in the upper room, when Peter stood up to propose the way to make the choice. Peter had one criterion, that, like Andrew, James, John, and himself, the new apostle be someone who had been a disciple from the very beginning, from his baptism by John until the Ascension.

The reason for this was simple; the new apostle must become a witness to Jesus' resurrection. He must have followed Jesus before anyone knew Him, stayed with Him when He made enemies, and believed in Him when He spoke of the cross and of eating His body - teachings that had made others melt away.

Clement of Alexandria says that Matthias, like all the other apostles, was not chosen by Jesus for what he already was, but for what Jesus foresaw he would become. He was elected not because he was worthy, but because he would become worthy. Jesus chooses all of us in the same way.

What does Jesus want you to become?

Have you ever felt like an afterthought, a latecomer? Or have you ever resented someone new who was added to your group? Try to see your community as not complete without the newcomer, whether you or someone else.

Welcome any newcomers to your parish, work, or family community this week as someone chosen by God.
