SAINTS JOACHIM AND ANNE - Feast Day - July 26 Patron Saints of grandparents and of Canada (St. Anne) God has a family tree, just like all men

Many parents think their child is perfect. Only two sets of parents were ever right. Saint Mary and Saint Joseph had a child through grace and raised that perfect God-son to adulthood. The parents of Saint Mary conceived their daughter in the normal human fashion but without the stain of original sin. So their daughter was superior to them from the start, yet it had nothing to do with hubris. This feast celebrates those humble parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary known to long tradition as Saints Joachim and Anne, though they are unnamed in Scripture. The first mention of Anne and Joachim in the Christian tradition is an apocryphal text from the second century which was judged to be fraudulent by the earliest scripture scholars. The Muslim Quran refers to Saint Anne in Arabic as Hannah, says that she conceived in her old age, expecting a male, but was given a daughter and named her Mary. We honour Saints Anne and Joachim because they reared the perfect child and were grandparents to the Son of God.

Saints Joachim and Anne, may your quiet, hidden roles in the Divine plan inspire all who do the Church's work behind the scenes and out of view to persevere in supporting the Church's saving mission.

THANK YOU to Jackson Bradica, Maebh Gleason, Jack-Alan Reynolds, Chelsea Smith and Linda Rose Spence who have been fulfilling the requirements in preparation for their Confirmation.
